

Acknowledgments

The sweet support of wonderful friends and students inspires my journey through life. The publication of this book would not have been possible without those who were open to guidance from this information. The individuals who provided their encouragement and love to the process of this book include Shannon Wiancki, Vanessa Massey, Brenda Newton, Dana Stoltz Gray, Alfredo Fernandez-Bussy, and others; to all of you I express my deepest appreciation and gratitude.

Each day I consider the wonder of life. I offer appreciation and love to the great teachers and mystics who patiently passed on the wisdom and teachings of Yoga and Ayurveda to all of us. Through these teachings, I connect to my Divine source and all that is.

May you see who you truly are as an eternal spirit. Remember it each day and in each moment. Peace to all.
